

January 18, 2007

Mr. Jeffery D. Cox

Dear Jeffery:

My sincerest congratulations to you for your initiative to participate in the Martin Luther King Essay Contest and for being the winning entry. Your essay was very impressive! Your energy and creativity were obviously instrumental in the success of expressing your thoughts about Dr. King on paper.

Thanks for investing your time and talents to support this worthy cause. Through efforts like yours, we will continue to remember the many sacrifices of Dr. King, and the importance of protecting our freedom. Congratulations!

Sincerely,

William N. Phillips
Brigadier General, U.S. Army
Deputy Program Executive Officer, Aviation

*Mr. Cox,
So very proud of you. What an incredible essay that's worthy of repetition! Thanks for taking the time to write an impressive document! W/N
Bill*